Week 9

- Mrs Hurrell's 'Well Done' Board..... congratulations to the following children whose outstanding work is now on display on the board just outside Year 6. It's certainly work to be proud of! It can be viewed on the website too.....
Year 6 Frankie, Gemma, Skyla, Jake, Alfie. Year 5 Isabelle and Erin, Annamae, Harry, Archie. Year 3 Brooke, Erica. Year 2 Maisie, Lucas, Kiara. Year 2 – photo of their Long Project carried out in Year1.
Please note that some of the pieces relate to work carried out last school year – our celebratory board is simply not large enough to display all the wonderful pieces I have, as soon as I receive them!
- Half Term Poster design competition.....just a reminder that this competition is open until Thursday (2nd November). For just 50p entry fee, an A4 poster representing 'All Different, All Equal' (supporting anti-bullying week) is the brief.
- Nursery reminders....Mrs Denton's Parent/Teacher Consultations are being held this week and next – please speak with her to arrange yours.
- Plimsolls....are an essential part of our PE kit. Every child needs to have a pair of well-fitting black plimsolls in school every day. Plimsolls are worn in the Hall for indoor PE. This applies to the Nursery children too.

This is for the safety of everyone in school and as I'm sure you will appreciate by not using your phone, there can be no allegations or misunderstandings made about photos being taken. Please would you ensure that other family members/friends bringing/collecting your child(ren) to school understand and observe this too. Thank you.
